

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS28274C1 / H0089

This allows school district employees, with an enhanced concealed weapons license, to carry a concealed weapon on school property. This requires that the school district employee maintain the weapon concealed and within their immediate control. It provides that employees desiring to utilize this statute provide a confidential copy of their enhanced license to school officials who shall also share the information with law enforcement.

FISCAL NOTE

There should not be and significant fiscal impact on state or local government because this does not place requirements on local or state government entities other than minor record keeping.
